FOR 35 YEARS
this newspaper has been devoted to the welfare of Sierra Madre. It is home owned and has no other interest.

Expect Only Volunteers On First Call

Questionnaires For Local Draftees Start Going Into The Mail Tomorrow

Draft registrants in this Selective Service division will begin to receive their questionnaires from Monrovia draft headquarters tomorrow. Questionnaires will be mailed at the rate of 50 a day, and must be returned by registrants within five days after their receipt. Forms were mailed last Friday to the district's ten volunteers, and six have been filled out and returned to draft headquarters.

Questionnaires, eight pages in length, query registrants as to their physical condition, education, occupation, agricultural occupations, specifically; citizenship, court record if any, and previous military service.

Section ten allows conscientious objectors to claim exemption from either combatant military service or noncombatant service. However, draft officials state that objectors are also given separate forms to fill out and must present affidavits to the effect that they have always been objectors and can back up their contention by showing previous affiliation with some religious group or social organization consistently opposed to military activity. To date only two men in this district have specified their intention to escape military training on this account.

It is not possible just now to

Up-To-Date Jewelry Store Will Open Here Tomorrow

Sierra Madre is to have an up-to-date jewelry store that will rival any of the larger metropolitan stores in selection of merchandise when Byron Hopper, member of the California Horological Assn., opens his cheerfully decorated new store located next to the NEWS office at 11 Kersting Court, Friday and Saturday. Mr. Hopper is the authorized distributor in this area for Bulova, Elgin, Hamilton and Waltham watches, and will carry a stock of perfect blue white diamonds in addition to smart costume jewelry, chic evening bags, and accessories. Mr. Hopper also enjoys a reputation as an expert watch repairer.

All townspeople who attend the opening Friday and Saturday will be given a gift to celebrate the opening of the new store.

Local Tennis Stars Play Arroyo Team Here On Sunday

Sierra Madre Tennis Club teams will play a series of matches Sunday on the city park courts with teams of the Arroyo Tennis Club of Altadena. Matches will begin at 8 a.m. and will last until 3 p.m. Park courts will be reserved between these hours for the matches. Several games are also scheduled to be played on the George Dudley courts at Six T Oaks on West Orange Grove avenue.

Local tennis stars who will compete are Wayne Perry, Henry Simmons, Ralph Anderson, Randolph Wood, Bud McRoberts, Gordon Maddock, Allan Wood, David Larson, Gerald Smith, Homer Tuttle, Jack Butler, Bill Evans, Ray Fox, Tom O'Grady, Donald Keyes and two of the fairer sex, Phyllis Evans and Catherine Tuttle.

Fire Horn Blares Its First Alarms; Is Far From Popular

The city's new fire horn atop the city hall made its debut Halloween night when pranksters set fire to five of the city's palm trees.

Although separate calls were received at the outbreak of each new fire, only two alarms were sounded since firemen remained on duty after the first two calls. Heretofore, there were certain sections in town which the siren did not reach; however the new horn penetrated every nook and cranny of the village and left no doubt as to its efficiency for bringing firemen to night fires.

The alarms came late at night when most of the villagers were in slumberland. Few slept on, however. Some were startled, some actually scared and many frankly annoyed and don't approve of the new gadget at all. But the firemen like it because it locates fires for them.

Junior Women Will Sell Forget-Me-Nots For Disabled Vets

The Junior Women's Club is sponsoring a Forget-Me-Not drive Saturday, to benefit disabled American veterans who fought in the front line trenches during the last World War and are now bedfast and without funds.

All members of the club will solicit townspeople to buy forget-me-nots Saturday, and the following women will canvas the downtown area. Nita Twedell, chairman, Jane McElwain, Althea Butler, Mary Frances Fleming, Barbara Heasley, Helen Needles and Melba Seifert. A table will also be stationed in front of the Sierra Madre Savings Bank for contributions.

Rowdiness On Hallowe'en In New Turn

Firing Of Palm Trees In Several Areas Brings Firemen Out On Five Calls

There was less Hallowe'en destruction in the downtown area this year than last, but police are on the trail of rowdies who hit upon a new and dangerous means of satisfying a bad instinct—the burning of palm trees. Five of them were set afire in the residential area, one shortly before and four after midnight. All of the fires brought out the fire department.

Other gangs hidden in orange groves hurled green oranges, hard as rocks, at automobiles and here and there automobiles, including a police car, were splattered with eggs. Many boys and youths old enough to have some discretion were taken to the police station for reprimands and in an effort to learn who had fired the palm trees, but no actual arrests were made.

The trees set afire were on Canon Avenue, one on East Highland, one on Auburn, and two on Sunnyside avenue.

A can of red paint was hurled from a car onto the sidewalk in front of the City Hall. The paint could not be completely cleaned from the sidewalk but the building was not smeared. Street lights on Montecito and Baldwin avenues were broken, and stone walls torn down or damaged on Alegria avenue between Baldwin and Mt. Trail.

Plan Holiday Atmosphere Downtown

Streets In Shopping District Will Be Decorated With Christmas Trees

Members of the Chamber of Commerce met Thursday evening at the request of their president, Harry Lange, to discuss plans for decorating Sierra Madre's business district during the three weeks holiday period between December 9th and 31st. Continuing the successful work instituted by the Chamber of Commerce last year, merchants will be asked to cooperate by decorating and lighting individual Christmas trees to be placed in tubs in front of their stores. Tubs in which the trees are to be planted will be used later by the Wistaria Town float committee.

Winding up the Christmas festivities, merchants are asking the Woman's Club to aid them in putting on a "Hostess Day," December 31st. Plan is to have a prominent woman stationed in each store to greet shoppers and to help newcomers to become better acquainted. Each hostess will be asked to invite her friends to drop into the store during the day.

Gym Accident May Cause Boy's Death

Gordon Zahler, 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Zahler of 121 South Mountain Trail, is in a critical condition at the Los Angeles General Hospital as a result of an accident which occurred last week at John Marshall High school in Pasadena.

While in gym class young Zahler fell, breaking a vertebrae in his neck and seriously injuring the spinal cord. He was taken immediately to St. Luke's Hospital, but on the advice of physicians moved to the Los Angeles General Hospital where he is resting comfortably, but completely paralyzed below the chest. Specialists attending feel that he has an even chance to live.

Armistice Day 1940

By MARY WARD

Armistice Day draws near again
Bringing memories to men
Of that mad day . . . gone twenty years
When streets were thronged and rang with cheers
"That war was ended for all time"
Poets wrote in song and rhyme
That all unholly strife would cease
And Nations henceforth be at peace.

Yet in this troubled world it seems
Man cannot realize his dreams,
For in far countries over there
Fighting planes pollute the air
With deadly bombs that work their spell
Turning earth to fiery hell.
O God, have pity on those lands
Whose future fate rests in Thy hands.
Sierra Madre, Nov. 7, 1940.

WE CAN'T AFFORD IT

The results of the presidential election have sent many hopes crashing, while the hearts of other millions are re-sounding to the cheers which acclaim the victory of the man of their choice.

Presidential politicking and palavering can now be laid aside for four years, in fact, must be laid aside in so critical a period as this. During the coming months we can, if we like, indulge to our heart's content in recriminations, in bitter attacks on this or that aspect of the campaign, or a campaign speech, which moved us to anger and resentment. We can vent our spleen freely if we choose. But we can ill afford it! Rock the boat in fair weather if you like. But to-day there are storm clouds on the horizon, the air is filled from abroad with unwelcome threats, jeers and unasked for advice directed at us by the masters of power-hungry lands. Shall we make ourselves secure? Shall we make ourselves strong? Shall we arm speedily and efficiently as our brawn, brain, and will, permit. If so, then we must unite all efforts to that end, forgetting past grudges, old resentments, dispensing with the sourpuss attitude that refuses to pitch in and help without exacting a price for its cooperation.

In unity is our strength, our surest hope of peace. Without unity, we are likely to fail. With it, victory is assured.

COUNCILMAN TRUNDLES FIRE CHIEF AROUND TOWN TO PAY ELECTION BET

The town turned out en masse when Councilman Tom Schwartz paid off an election bet to Fire Chief Bill Richards yesterday. The pre-election agreement was that if Roosevelt won Schwartz was to escort Richards through the business district in a wheelbarrow, and if Willkie won Richards was to return the favor.

So at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday, townspeople and camera addicts gathered at the city hall to see Schwartz push the hundred and eighty pound Fire Chief in a wheelbarrow whose front wheel was off center and which was not selected (by Schwartz) with an eye to comfort.

When the fatal time approached, the fire chief appeared on the scene in official regalia and with badges gleaming. Clutched firmly in one hand was an American flag, and on his official bosom he wore a Roosevelt placard. The loser was given a placard which read "Chancellor Schwartz" and requested to wear it on his back.

No slacker, Schwartz not only pushed the winner up Sierra Madre blvd. up the grade on Baldwin avenue, south on Baldwin and back down the other side of Sierra Madre blvd., but he made stops at the doors of each business house. Somewhere along the line, the fire chief acquired a long red balloon with which he posed willingly for photographers.

Firemen's Toy Shop Opens On Monday

It's "off with the old and on with the new" as election passes and Christmas approaches. Best local illustration of the old adage will be when Willkie Volunteers surrender their headquarters on Sierra Madre blvd. to Volunteer Firemen for a Toy Shop.

Following their yearly custom, the city's firemen will devote their evenings from now until Christmas eve making over broken and discarded toys into bright usable playthings that will make less fortunate youngsters realize that Santa Claus is "no respecter of persons." Vernon Udell and Bob Newbery will be in charge of the shop which will open Monday evening and be open each evening from now until the close of the holiday season.

Fire Chief Bill Richards asks that parents search their store rooms and attics for children's toys that have lost their appeal or been worn or damaged and bring them to the toy shop where firemen transform them by adding a wheel or an eye, as the case may be, and with a generous coat of bright paint make them attractive for children to whom toys are a luxury.

Complete Design For City's Entry In 1941 Rose Parade

Alfred J. Dewey has completed a design for Sierra Madre's entry in the 1941 Tournament of Roses pronounced by members of the Wistaria Town Float Committee who have seen it to be more striking and beautiful than anything the city has yet sent into the great New Year's pageant. The color scheme is said to be red, white and blue, as in the last prize winning float. The tentative title is "The Father of Our Country." Dewey expects to have a model ready to submit to the float committee late next week.

Legions Armistice Dance Will Be Held Saturday Evening

Jerry Lawrence and his popular dance orchestra have been engaged to play for the Armistice night benefit dance which will be given by the Sierra Madre Post of the American Legion at the Woman's clubhouse, Saturday night, November 9.

Vint Hoegge, John O'Grady and Lloyd B. Welch are on the committee in charge of arrangements. Harold Roberts has been named refreshment chairman. Tickets may be purchased from Milton Steinberger at the Standard Service Station or from any member of the local Legion post.

Plans For Red Cross Drive Announced

Captains Appointed And Workers Will Be Instructed At Tea Tomorrow

A tea for Red Cross membership captains and precinct workers will be held at 3:30 tomorrow at Red Cross headquarters on Sierra Madre blvd., under the chairmanship of Mrs. C. W. Bowen, to make final preparations for the annual membership campaign that begins Armistice Day. Workers will be instructed as to their duties in the districts to be canvassed and given individual kits containing buttons, membership cards and Red Cross stickers. Mrs. A. E. O'Banion, roll call chairman, is particularly anxious that all Red Cross workers attend the tea. Mrs. Esther Chaddbourne, field representative of the Pacific Coast branch of the American Red Cross, will talk to field workers on the importance of the membership drive.

Precinct captains in charge of the drive are Mrs. C. W. Bowen, Mrs. Frank Spencer, Mrs. Ross Marshall, Miss Jean Woodward, Mrs. Vera Gebb, Mrs. Augusta Coats, and Mrs. E. R. Thompson.

Pamphlets listing Red Cross activities will be distributed Saturday.

Death Calls A Beloved Woman Here

Sierra Madre lost another beloved and distinguished resident this week when Mrs. Camerón T. Dickinson who had lived here since 1919 died Sunday at her home, 965 East Grand View avenue.

Born Anne Eliza Allen Brown at Poughkeepsie, N.Y., November 17, 1857, Mrs. Dickinson taught school 15 years before coming to California in the fall of 1890 to visit a cousin in Claremont. She decided to make California her home and since 1892 had resided in Los Angeles County. In 1907 she married Henry A. Darling in Denver, then returned to take up residence in Los Angeles, and later journeyed to Tahiti with Mr. Darling. Her deep interest in child welfare took her into the Los Angeles Juvenile Court after Mr. Darling's death early in 1910, and she worked unceasingly for 18 months in behalf of the children who came within the jurisdiction of that court.

In 1919 she came to Sierra Madre and for the next three years, business interests, the Friday Morning Club, the Sierra Madre Woman's Club, gardens, music and books claimed her interest. On July 21, 1927 she was married to Mr. Dickinson on a high flat of one of the Sierra Madre foothills. Years of intermittent high blood pressure culminated May 27, 1938, in a paralytic stroke which left her helpless but still responsive to laughter and humor.

Dean Arnold G. H. Bode officiated at the funeral Wednesday afternoon at Grant Chapel. Leslie Gaze of Pasadena was the soloist and was accompanied by Mrs. Gaze. Pallbearers were D. Huber, Dr. Homer Hansen, Leslie Gaze, Archa E. Hoffman, Ralph Maskey and Dr. Clyde Colvin. Burial was at Hollywood Cemetery.

Mrs. Dickinson is survived by her husband and her cousins, Mrs. Mary G. Darling, Kenneth G. Darling of Cambridge, Mass., and Mr. and Mrs. H. Reeve Darling of Glendora.

ALL G.O.P. CANDIDATES CARRY SIERRA MADRE; FITTS LOSES BY 11

Willkie Leads Roosevelt By 271—Two Votes For Browder, Communist Candidate — Congressman Hinshaw Polls Highest Vote—Ten State Propositions Opposed—Daylight Saving Walloped

Joining most of its neighboring communities in the San Gabriel Valley Sierra Madre gave Wendell L. Willkie a majority at Tuesday's election, though it fell somewhat short of the general belief that it would approach 500. It was actually 271, Willkie polling 1375 and Roosevelt 1104 votes. The same voters contributed a majority of 11 votes toward the smashing defeat of District Attorney Euron Fitts, he receiving 1181 and John F. Dockweiler, his successful opponent, 1192 votes.

Congressman Carl Hinshaw, practically unopposed, polled the highest vote here, there being 2049 ballots cast for him. Senator Hiram Johnson, also practically unopposed, polled the next highest vote, receiving 1850. Assemblyman T. Fenton Knight who has apparently defeated Leslie Preston, his Democratic opponent by a vote of nearly two to one, ran next here with 1362 votes, Preston receiving 799 here.

Willkie carried all but two of the nine local precincts, the sixth and seventh. Hinshaw, Johnson and Knight carried every precinct. The daylight saving proposition, No. 5 on the ballot, was walloped by majority of 589 Sierra Madre votes, 719 votes being cast for and 1299 against it. Ten of the 17 State propositions were disapproved by local voters and seven—Nos. 1, 2, 4, 8, 10, 11 and 14 were given majorities. County Proposition No. 1 was approved by a good majority and No. 2 was rejected by an equally substantial vote.

Two Sierra Madreans voted for Browder, Communist candidate for president who made no effort to vote for himself, while 17 cast their ballots for Thomas, Socialist, and 15 for Babson, Prohibition candidate.

A protest vote was cast here against the method of selecting or continuing supreme and district court of appeal judges in office, 353 votes being cast against the continuance of Justice Phil Gibson, 333 against Traynor, 261 against Moore, and 259 against McCormick.

Pasadena gave a Willkie majority of 6886, San Marino 3196, South Pasadena 2693, Altadena 2134, Arcadia 965, Monrovia 547 and Lamanda Park 230.

SOCIETY

SCHWARTZ-CALVERT VOWS TO BE TAKEN SATURDAY

At a candlelight ceremony to be performed at 8:30 Saturday night at Hartzell Methodist Church in Pasadena, Miss Evelyn Marie Calvert will be married to Dr. Charles Schwartz. Reverend H. H. Hickey of the First Methodist Church in Covina will officiate.

To the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march, Miss Calvert will enter the church on the arm of her father, Everett J. Calvert, of Pasadena. She will wear a gown of ivory satin en train, fashioned along simple lines with short puffed sleeves. Her fingertip tulle veil will fall from a heart shaped halo trimmed with seed pearls. She will carry a colonial bouquet of all white flowers, and will wear a pair of antique gold bracelets, more than 125 years old which have been worn by three previous brides.

Miss Dorothy Nemeyer will attend Miss Calvert as maid of honor. Her bridesmaids will be Mrs. Harrison M. Bains and Mrs. John C. Milne, Jr. All will wear gowns of ruby colored velvet fashioned with basque waists, full skirts and heart shaped necklines which will be accented with heavy starched lace trimming. Each attendant will also wear a matching bow of starched lace in her hair, a necklace of pearls, the gift of the bride, and will carry a colonial nosegay of white mixed flowers. The junior bridesmaids, the Misses Ruth Ann and Norma Jean Fox of Santa Barbara, nieces of Miss Calvert, will wear royal blue velvet gowns, like those of the other bridal attendants and will carry miniature nosegays.

Dr. Jesse Iverson will attend Dr. Schwartz as best man, while ushers will be the brothers of the bridegroom, William, Tom, Sam and Preston Schwartz.

Mrs. H. H. Hickey will be the soloist, singing "Because," and "Ah Sweet Mystery of Life." She will be accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Marian Goodlander.

After the ceremony a reception will be held for 200 guests in the social hall of the church. Mrs. Everett J. Calvert, mother of the bride, and Mrs. Preston Schwartz will receive.

Dr. and Mrs. Schwartz will spend a few days in the southern part of the state before leaving for a leisurely trip to the coast. After November 15, they will be at home to their friends at 101 Point Lobos, San Francisco.

Miss Calvert is a graduate of Pasadena Junior College where she belonged to the Pamphile Restrictive Club, and is a member of the Michellinda Junior Woman's Club.

Dr. Schwartz, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Preston Schwartz of 289 E. Montecito avenue, graduated from Pasadena Junior College where he was affiliated with the Areopogites and later attended UCLA where he was a Phi Delta Theta. He took his medical degree at the Stanford School of Medicine, served his internship in San Francisco and Stanford hospitals and for a year was surgical health officer at the San Francisco Hospital. He is now in private practice with Dr. Leo Eloesser. He recently volunteered for the Fifty Ninth Evacuation Hospital Corps and is called for military service will serve as Captain of the corps.

GARDEN TEA AND SHOWER HONOR MRS. NICHOLSON

Complimenting Mrs. James Alexander Nicholson, Mrs. Kenneth Bush and Miss Cynthia Hull entertained with a garden tea and crystal shower at the latter's home Saturday afternoon.

Attending were the honoree, her mother and sister, Mrs. Jack Paschall and Miss Marilyn Paschall; Mrs. James A. Nicholson, Sr., who is visiting in California; Miss Lucile Remy of Pasadena; Miss Virginia Miller of Arcadia; Mrs. Larry Williams, Mrs. Fred Luenberger, Mrs. Lynn Hostetter, Mrs. Alice Hazeltine and Miss Barbara Hollingsworth of Los Angeles; Mrs. Eleanor Whitney of Verdugo City; the Mesdames Eleanor Guinetti, Elma Blanke, Frances Kampert, Marion Thayer, Ruth Senour, Marjorie Black, Mrs. W. S. Hull, who poured, and the hostesses.

GOLDING WEDDING PARTY IS A SURPRISE

A surprise dinner party honoring Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Bonbright on the occasion of their golden wedding anniversary was given by Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hobson of 47 Bonita avenue and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Taylor, Jr., at the Taylor residence in Altadena Monday evening.

Yellow roses centered the dinner table laid with a yellow cloth and service, while golden toned autumn flowers decorated the house.

TO INSTALL MISS LENTZ AS TRI-Y PRESIDENT

Miss Norma Louise Lentz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip C. Lentz of 354 North Canyon drive, will be installed as president of the Arcadia Tri Y at the formal installation ceremony which will take place the evening of November 13 at the Arcadia Woman's Club. Officers to be installed will be gowned in simple white frocks and will carry old fashioned nosegays of small yellow and white chrysanthemums. Miss Leona High, Gus Rihard and William Griffin will present the musical program. Last Tuesday evening Miss Lentz who is accompanist for the Monrovia High School Glee Club, appeared with the club in concert Tuesday at the Monrovia Rotary Club.

SEVEN RUSHEES AT TEA OF THE MAPA CLUB

Tiny chrysanthemums in yellow, purple and white tones centered the table for the Mapa Rush tea which was held at the home of Mrs. James Alexander Nicholson Sunday afternoon. Rushes were Miss Ruth Olwin, Miss Marilyn Paschall, and the Mesdames Walter Jackson of Monrovia; Max Trumpower, Richard Thayer, Kenneth Bush and Sherry Johnson. Members present were Mesdames Eleanor Guinetti, Marian Jones, Marjorie Black, Betty Palmer, Eleanor Harper, Elma Blanke and the Misses Barbara Hollingsworth, Virginia Miller, and Cynthia Hull.

Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. Nicholson were hosts at a covered dish supper to Eleanor and Morrie Harper, Kay and Al Switzer, Ruth Olwin and John Senour, and Cynthia Hull and Bob Baugh.

MODERN PRISCILLAS WILL MEET NEXT WEEK

The regular meeting of the Modern Priscillas will be held at 2:30 Thursday afternoon, November 14, at the home of Mrs. H. Clay Reavis, 551 Sturtevant drive. Mrs. Rudolph Hartman will be co-hostess.

LUNCHEON PARTY HONORS BERKELEY VISITOR

To honor her house guest Mrs. Fred King, Mrs. J. C. James entertained at a bridge luncheon at her home last week. Guests were Mesdames G. M. McRoberts, Sr., James Cable, W. T. Wersted, Ann Felt, Johnson Irish, R. L. Webster, Henry S. Burnham, Miss Pearl Smith, and Mrs. Hendricks and Mrs. Parks of Pasadena. Following a two weeks visit here Mrs. King left Friday for her home in Berkeley.

CLUB DRAMA SECTION HEARS GREAT PLAY

The Drama Section of the Sierra Madre Woman's Club held its first meeting of the season Monday at the home of the chairman, Mrs. J. Milton Steinberger. The play considered was Robert Serwood's latest and most telling contribution to the American theatre, "There Shall be No Night," now being played by Alfred Lunt and Lynn Fontaine. With an atmosphere of Sebalus music, the chairman read this great play with all its deep passion for the true and lasting redemption of humanity. The reading was followed by conversation and a truly Finnish service of tea with the music of that great people as a fitting close.

SOCIAL NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Hewitt and son, G. C. Hewitt, Jr., and Miss Bertha Linville enjoyed Sunday dinner with Major and Mrs. P. B. Linville at their home, 595 Alta Vista Terrace, and in the afternoon drove to Fontana to visit friends with the Linvilles.

The Plaza Community Center Club will hold its monthly luncheon meeting at the Children's Home at 72 West Alegria avenue, Friday, November 8. Sierra Madre friends may attend the early afternoon meeting or drop into visit the home any time during the afternoon.

Complimenting her niece, Mrs. John Dahl of San Diego, who was her weekend houseguest, Mrs. W. T. McKee entertained with an informal dinner at her home, 618 West Highland avenue, Sunday evening. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. William Lauren Rhoades, and Miss Ruth West of Sierra Madre; and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dent of North Hollywood.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Holgate and daughter Louise, and Miss Margaret Biddle of Los Angeles, were Sunday evening dinner guests of Dr. and Mrs. C. L. T. Herbert at their home, 223 North Mountain Trail avenue.

Mrs. Ross Marshall and daughter Patricia were guests at the luncheon and afternoon party given Saturday by Mrs. Kendall Benedict in honor of the birthday anniversary of her daughter, Marilyn.

Mr. and Mrs. Bertram Schultze and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Brooks and family were entertained at dinner Friday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Willis at their South Pasadena home. Following dinner the party attended a Christian Fellowship Sing held at the Pasadena home of Mrs. C. D. Croan, former Sierra Madrean, and directed by Mr. and Mrs. Don Mathews of Sierra Madre. Thirty members of the Christian Fellowship Class of Bethany Church were present.

A family dinner party to celebrate the 11th birthday anniversary of Bobby Ives of Los Angeles, grandson of Mrs. D. B. Christie, was given by Mr. and Mrs. Christie at their home, 297 West Sierra Madre blvd., where Mrs. Hazel Ives, daughter Nannette, and son Bobby, were all-day guests Saturday.

GIRL SCOUTS ENJOY A GAY HALLOWEEN PARTY

A hall of horrors, fortune telling, games and dancing brought gaiety to the costume party given last week for Sierra Madre Girl Scouts of Troop 1 at the Pasadena home of their assistant leader, Mrs. Sam Smith. The Halloween theme prevailed in decorations for the party which was arranged by Juanita Crossett and Dorothy Farmer.

Members and their guests present were Jean Breton, June Wilcox, Joan Clement, Shirley Schell, Juanita Thompson, Jean Goodrich, Juanita Crossett, Ruth Coit (who was awarded the prize for the best costume), Dorothy Farmer, Raymond Sommerliot, Max Henson, Bill Swartz, Lloyd Martin, Lyle Penfold, Bill Wray and Gilmore Newman.

COSTUME CONTEST AT CAMP FIRE GIRLS PARTY

Aweont Camp Fire Girls celebrated Halloween with a costume party and wicker bake at the home of Mrs. R. H. Pickett Thursday. The affair was arranged by Mrs. Louis McClelland, guardian of the group and her assistant Miss Betty Patterson. Betsy Ward who arrived dressed as a Chinese, won the costume prize. Present were Jo Ann Finch, Phyllis Jean Lentz, Adela Mendoza, Evelyn Noshier, Rebecca Parra, Velma Pickett, Arden Rudolph, Marvel Roberts, Mary Smedley, Sylvia Thayer, Rosemary Tirwater, Betsy Ward, Carol Hawkes, Sylvia Young, Betty Babbitt, Ruth McClelland, Elva Pickett, Phyllis McClelland, Miss Patterson, Mrs. Pickett and Mrs. McClelland.

WISTARIA BLUE BIRDS HAVE HALLOWEEN PARTY

Wistaria Blue Birds arriving at the home of Mrs. Fred Schaeffer on Mariposa avenue last Wednesday for their regular meeting were surprised to be presented with whatever they found inside. Each bag contained a clever or funny costume; they were then given large paper plates with instructions for mask making and had a jolly time cooperating with their guardian Mrs. C. Lauren Maltby and Mrs. Schaeffer in making the party a success. At the conclusion of games, Halloween refreshments were served to Sharlene Lindley, Mary Lou Polgreen, Nancy Tarr, Ardis Jacobson, Jeanne Maltby, Lois Schaeffer, Sally Woehler, Eleanor Pipkin, Donna and Diana Norris, Betty Rowe, Carole Taylor, Susan Burnham, Priscilla Young and Mary Ann Haskins.

BIRTHDAY PARTY FOR MISS JANE ROSS

A Friday night dinner party to be followed by a trip to the Venice fun house has been arranged by Mrs. E. H. Ross of 381 North Baldwin avenue, to celebrate the 13th birthday anniversary of her daughter June. Autumn colors will prevail in decorations and table favors. Places will be laid for Louise Perry, Virginia Liscomb, Joan Woehler, Alice Burnham, Mary Della Coon of Pasadena and Florence Kenner of Santa Monica.

Sees Lesson For America In Greece

U. S. Must Study Fall Of Other Nations Says Professor Lecturing Here

Launching the series of lectures on "Why Civilizations Fall," to be given at the Sierra Madre Woman's Club under the sponsorship of the University of California at Los Angeles, Dr. Wesley Robson, assistant professor of philosophy at UCLA, will give the opening lecture at 11:30 a.m. next Wednesday, November 13.

Pian's MILLINERY AND DRESS SHOP

Dresses Suits Coats Hats Smart Styles Moderately Priced 189 E. Colorado Pasadena

the University of Washington and his Ph.D. at Harvard. Before coming to UCLA he taught for several years at the University of Washington and at Columbia. He has chosen as his topic "Causes of the Disappearance of the Greek Civilization."

In a recent brief outline of his talk, Dr. Robson said, "Today we realize that our own civilization, which we have been accustomed to take for granted as part of the enduring furniture of the earth, can only by effort be saved from destruction. And if history has anything to teach us about our present tragic situation, if we are to learn how to avoid letting it end in tragedy, surely we need to examine with some care the decline and fall of previous civilizations. Such a study offers promise of a deeper understanding of just what our danger is and just how we may best cope with it."

"I am especially glad to have the opportunity to discuss with the group at the Sierra Madre Woman's Club House, the cause of the downfall of ancient Greece. The Greeks, more than any other ancient people, were our cultural ancestors; and the historical record shows that their ways of living and thinking were closely akin to our own. But most important of all, there is a striking parallel between their great political problem and the problem of our generation (though of course theirs was on a smaller scale)."

"What can a number of relatively powerful states, economically interdependent but politically independent, do to avoid the bloody wars which, if continued, lead to mutual ruin? The Greeks failed to solve this problem—and were lost. We cannot, I think, take too seriously the lesson of their failure."

This series of lectures will be open not only to club members but men in the community who wish to attend may do so by paying a small fee for each lecture. Women who are not members but wish to hear the lectures will find the annual club dues not in excess of the price ordinarily charged for such a course.

The theme of the series was chosen by Mrs. Waverly Pratt, president, who was assisted in getting eminent speakers from UCLA by Mrs. C. A. Vane, legislative chairman.

To assist the Red Cross with Thanksgiving baskets women of the club are asked by Mrs. Pratt to bring a can or package of food for the huge basket which will be filled by local clubwomen. Clubwomen are also asked by the president to enroll in the Red Cross through the Woman's Club.

FIRE FLAMES

By One of the Boys

When the firemen meet tonight they will not only be thinking and talking of the recent election, but of the past Halloween when the fire trucks were driven from the station on five occasions, due to the vandalism of some one who is not a child (insofar as years are concerned.) Fires were started in dry palm trees in areas where the tinder could have started fires in houses where people were asleep, and might have been fatally burned before discovery of the blaze. This is not funny, regardless of the fact that it may be laughable to see the firemen rushing to the scene dressed in colored pajamas or the wife's silk kimonos.

Fun is fun, but when a house is burned to the ground or even damaged, just to feel sorry will not remedy the condition. The party or parties responsible for these fires is or are old enough to realize the danger of such a practice and old enough to realize that to see an innocent person suffer from the effects of fire, either bodily or the loss of property, would be pleasant only to a fiend.

The firemen are getting inquiries as to the date of our big dance and card party. After tonight's meeting, the men will be ready to announce the date and also go to work. This will include the ticket selling campaign—not a "cinch" for some of us. I'd just about as soon take a good kick as to sell tickets, but majority rules in our organization so it wouldn't be good policy to be a slacker.

The men who are operating the Toy Shop once again urge folks to bring in old toys to be made over. (I don't suppose they would object to a few new ones, either.) It is now November and Christmas Day is not far off. This means that the fellows who do the work have not a great deal of time, since the work is to be done in the evenings after work.

Since the much to be regretted Halloween, there has not been another fire call. The entire fire department is sorry that our fine record was spoiled by our fine night as they experienced on that never-to-be-forgotten midnight and early morning. The necessity of many men in the department was proved where more than one fire occurred at the same time.

PJC Students Stage Rose Bowl Pageant This Evening

For the benefit of their new Student Union Building, Pasadena Junior College students are staging a pageant in the Rose Bowl this evening, that will include bands from McKinley, Marshall, Wilson, Eliot and Washington Junior High Schools. A parade of 40 floats will open the show at 8 p.m. El Monte and Alhambra High Schools will send bands to compete in the colorful show. Two thousand students will take part in the finale of the show as all the bands mass for the playing of the National Anthem while a 50 foot American Flag is displayed.

SIERRA MADRE GIRL SHOPS FOR SHOES AS BOMBS FALL AND SIRENS WHINE

Another of the interesting and informative letters giving a first hand and personal glimpse into the lives and reactions of Britishers during the current bombing siege, was received by Mrs. Preston Schwartz from her daughter, Mrs. Laurence LeFevre, wife of an Eton professor. Excerpts from Mrs. LeFevre's letter follow:

"We have still had no bombs in Eton, but are well shaken each night by heavy guns and bombs falling elsewhere, and today a plane was brought down in Windsor Great Park. But we have both been busy constantly because of course all national services are more alert than ever. In fact Laurence is out on a siren alarm, the fourth or fifth today . . . We were both at our posts last night, the all clear didn't sound until 6 a.m. Of course we're allowed to rest or sleep at the posts, but it isn't a real night's rest. In consequence we try to get to bed early, and get rest during the day. "This afternoon I went to a gas lecture, then attended a committee meeting for evacuation at the town hall council offices, then shopped even though the siren had sounded; but nothing was out this way. But this morning was a great day because I did what I like best of all, bought a good pair of walking shoes, and a good pair of shoes, fleece-lined and water proof, for winter! I did enjoy myself, and incidentally saved the 25 percent sales tax soon to be imposed. . . .

It is funny how normally the country carries on between sirens, and how it manages to enjoy itself. We have put our spare time on the garden which is yielding the most delicious vegetables.

ARMISTICE DAY

November 11, 22 years ago, was a day of rejoicing. The news of the Armistice swept round the world like a prairie wildfire, and from all lands there poured skyward a chorus of delicious cheers, a great hymn of praise. Four violent years of world war had come to an end.

The hearts of millions were gladdened not alone because that great conflict had come to a close, but because all war had been ended. Ahead lay a world in which the specter of war would be banished forever, a world in which no monstrous engines of destruction would ever again rain merciless death upon man, a world in which the family of nations would be tolerant, fair-minded, and dedicated to cooperative effort so as to ensure peace.

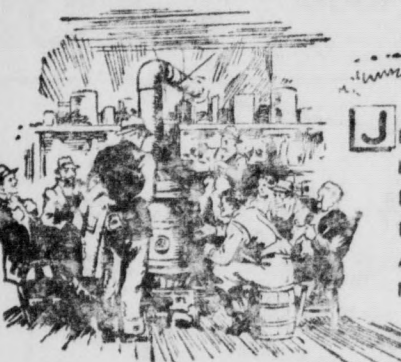

Not only the people believed this. So did their statesmen and other leaders. It was a faith common to all. Now the world has learned, with the mailed fist of war striking once more at the people of Europe and Asia and threatening our own shores, that it takes more than faith, or hope, to build a new world. It takes deeds. And because of fear, selfishness, or ignorance, the deeds were lacking during these last ten critical years.

This Armistice finds America a wiser and grimmer nation than on that jubilant November 11 in 1918. Today the country finds its best hope of peace in the armed strength that will command the wholesome respect of all powers. Such strength, by the same token, is likewise the nation's best hope of keeping faith with those of her sons who gave their lives believing that never again would war darken this land. May we keep faith with them!

BORROWING MAKES SORROWING

Here comes that Mrs. Flannigan and what can she be wanting now; a borrowing again or else, there's been another family row. Most every day she busts right in to ask our mop to scrub her floor; the stuff she mooches all the time you'd think we ran a general store. Perhaps she's going to bake a cake or needs some shortening, or flour; our vacuum she'd like to use, but not for long, say half an hour—and could we spare our auto jack, a tire is flat and needs repair; she's even asked for henna rinse to brighten up her daughter's hair. With all their fierce domestic scraps when Flannigan gets home at night, she touched us for our radio so they could hear Joe Louis fight. Our things she's borrowed, one by one, and sad to say, returned them not; it looks like Mrs. Flannigan will soon have everything we've got. To save the little that remains we'll have to move, but where, oh where? Which ever place on earth we choose, the borrowers, no doubt, are there.

Horseback Riding Wins Girl Scouts

Sierra Madre Girl Scouts who are working for the photography badge this year, were attentive and enthusiastic listeners to the talk on cameras which Bernard Wynne of the Sierra Madre Camera Club gave at the troop meeting last week.

The girls are also finding horseback riding of especial interest this year, many taking riding lessons, while those who have already become adept are enjoying long rides on nearby trails.

At a troop meeting held October 29, a donation was made to the memorial fund used for the relief of Girl Scouts in the war zone. Taking part in the activities of the Girl Scout Week which honors the memory of Juliette Low, founder of the Girl Scouts, members of the local troop attended church services in uniform last week.

UNCENSORED

By LEONE BAXTER

(Editor's Note: This is the third of a series of articles on a subject on which Washington is now training its guns: How far has the Nazi program for scuttling a democracy by remote control gone in America? Authentic and factual, this series discloses how that program is working today in California and discusses a significant situation of the every American should be aware.)

Time was when an invading enemy sought to catch his foe unawares. Bent on conquest, he spent months and often years in secretly planning his campaigns. His greatest weapon was secrecy; his strongest maneuver the surprise attack.

Modern warfare is different. Long ago Herr Hitler, in his Mein Kampf, told Czechoslovakia exactly what to expect. He told Poland, Holland and Belgium; he told Norway and Sweden and Denmark; he told France and England and the rest of the world precisely what his plans were and how he proposed to accomplish them.

Militarily speaking, that's strange enough, but it's not nearly so strange as the fact that up to this point, swiggering across the face of Europe, he has carried out his program pretty much as he declared he would. Der Fuhrer called his shots in plenty of time—but nobody was listening.

Until last March Czechoslovakia was the healthiest, strongest of European democracies, as pointed out by Voyta Benes, former president of its Senate, the other day in San Francisco. "The German minority had both political and cultural rights," Benes sadly recalled. "There were three German universities and 5,200 German grade schools. There was much talk of German 'plans' in our country, but we never thought of opposing the German or any other minority group, for in so doing we would have violated our own right to democracy."

"Today, German dictatorship has made my homeland the largest prison in the world, a land of tears and blood, a land of misery where hungry children cry for bread. Czech schools and institutions no longer exist. The German Gestapo has taken over."

But to the world, for some perverse reason or other, the Czech upheaval painted no object lesson. Again:

"We failed to take fifth-column activities in Norway seriously," said Sigrid Undset, Norwegian novelist, on her arrival in New York. "We always thought of Major Vidkun Quisling as a comical character. We learned differently too late!" So did a dozen other countries.

Considering the whole world picture, perhaps the announced plans of Nazi Germany should not be laughed of any more as high comedy. Recently, the Nazi program for the "Amerikaner Rebellion" appear in much of the German press here. That program should be read, and read with extreme care by all Americans able to read. It is under investigation now at Washington, and it is hoped it may be released verbatim for the information of every citizen.

In the next issue of this column we shall quote as much as space permits of the amazing "Rebellion" program, viciously planned and arrogantly planted by Nazi agents in this country.

FOUND IT CHILLY IN DEATH VALLEY

Mrs. Ruth Turner was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Marion L. Hays on a weekend outing in Death Valley. The party stayed at Furnace Creek, and visited Scottie's castle, Artist's Canyon and other points of interest. A heavy snowfall which blanketed the Sierra Nevada brought extremely cold weather to the valley according to the vacationists.

County Fair Chief Is Promoted By Edison Company

Announcement of the election of C. E. Houston as vice-president and assistant general manager of the Southern California Edison Co. Ltd., was made yesterday by Harry J. Baur, president. Mr. Houston has been asstant general manager of the company during the past year, and has been a member of the Edison organization for more than 30 years.

Mr. Houston is well known throughout California as president of the Los Angeles County Fair Association, an office he has held since 1933. He also is president of the Pacific Coast Electrical Association, an organization of 3,000 men and women in the western electrical industry. His election to a vice-presidency of the Edison Company is in recognition of a long period of outstanding service in the Southern California electrical industry. Mr. Bauer said, for he has been associated with the electrical industry since 1904, and his experience includes not only commercial executive work but also the operating and engineering phases of electrical utility affairs. He began his career with the Edison Electric Company, Los Angeles, one of the predecessor companies of the Southern California Edison Co., Ltd., in 1904.

A. L. A. Activities

A welcome visitor of our Unit on Thursday evening was Edith Woodruff of Washington, D.C., who gave us a colorful picture of her busy life at the National Capitol.

President Stinman, Secretary Embree, Treasurer Orelia Stinman and Lucile Pickett attended the District meeting at East Pasadena Monday night.

All Past-Presidents are invited to a pot-luck luncheon at Aroclia clubhouse on November 8th.

Our Unit has been asked to contribute two bed-jackets to the district's quota of 50 jackets for hospitalized Veterans. A pot-luck dinner will be held at an early date to raise funds for this work. Instructions have just been received for our yearly essay contest. Americanism Chairman Catherine Miller will contact the schools so that they participate. The topics will be: 1. "American Citizenship, Its Advantages and Obligations." 2. "What I owe America and What America Gives to Me." 3. "My responsibilities to America—Today and Tomorrow." All essays must be handed in by March 15th.

Our Unit will contribute to the decorating of the tables for the Armistice party at San Fernando Hospital.

A new theatre of war swings into the Mediterranean as Greeks and Italians wage battle in the borderland mountain passes, while the British fleet keeps watchful eye on Saloniki, which World War I first cast into the headlines. From Berlin and Rome comes the endless series of verbal balloons of hints of keeping the world pop-eyed over the ceaseless activity of the dizzily whirling Axis. The best cure for vertigo induced by this merry-go-round is to take with a large dose of salts the rumors and boasts daily ground out from Axis mills like so many link sausages. Rome and Berlin have created for the world the picture of themselves as two giants, serenely confident, infinite in strength, inexhaustible in their wills and deceptions. It is a matter of necessity for them to keep their own and other people distracted by this synthetic picture. Otherwise they would notice a curious defect of the giants and exclaim, "Say, what big chy feet you have!" And that would be the end of the giant. But healthy skepticism and hearty laughter are at the short end of their rope in Europe today. Let's not let them run short over here!

Bringing good cheer far in advance of the traditionally cheery Yuletide season, California's industrial plants have been dispensing jobs and payrolls at a rate that has sent old records tumbling into the discard. During September, factory employment and the size of payrolls were the highest for any September in history. That welcome bit of news should promise well-filled Christmas stockings this year!

In a letter to an American magazine, an English girl asserts that America's greatest contribution to Britain's defense has been the expression, "So what?" The British lacked a pungent phrase to encompass all the contempt and defiance they burn to express when one of Hitler's bombers makes a shambles of a London block. In like vein, the English of all classes have adopted the American "We can take it!"

When the Germans boasted that they were shelling London from a range of 99 miles, an exasperated British official denounced the claim as "Hokey." The prize employment of U.S. slang to date, however, solved the problem of getting past the Nazi censors the news that food in Nazi prison camps is bad, and that the guards are brutal and ignorant. An English prisoner of war wrote home as follows: "We get the best food I've ever eaten. The camp guards are all extremely decent and intelligent. Tell all my friends how well I am treated. Tell my pals in the army. Tell them in the navy. Above all, tell it to the marines!" The Nazi censors didn't delete a word! And the tonic of a grin must have spread throughout harassed England. Ordinarily, slang is to be discounted as loose and lazy speech. But if slang words are fighting words, these days, and our English cousins can make use of the expressive American variety—then more power to them and to England.

Forty-seven thousand more Californians at work, 47,000 more weekly paychecks, 47,000 more breadwinners able to provide food, shelter, and clothing for themselves and their families. That's the cheering scoresheet of non-agricultural employment in California this September as compared to last. Naturally a man with a real job is happier, better citizen. Happiness and citizenship not being measurable, we simply say: California is producing what California needs: jobs and payrolls!

Watchful eyes in the War Department have not observed for nothing how blitzkrieg, or the lightning war won its name, what the elements were that helped it strike with such deadly power in Poland, Norway, France and the Low Countries. Highly mobile armies, speeding toward the front in motorized units, great transport fleets following quickly after, bearing ammunition, fuel, food and other supplies, these put the "blitz" in the lightning attacks of land forces. There has been heartily little evidence of stiff-necked brass hat indifference to the lessons to be learned from Europe's recent land warfare. On the contrary, Under Secretary of War Robert Patterson has given an outline of the proposed plan which calls for extensive motorization of the Army. This week preparations for the purchase of 80,000 motor trucks by the War Department are near completion, but before such motorization reaches its goal, an eventual total of 186,000 such vehicles will be acquired.

Ships virtually rolling off assembly lines to sail the seven seas is the newest challenge that all the skill and technique of mass production may soon be called upon to meet. The British Ministry of Shipping, it was reported last week in Washington, D.C., is negotiating with the United States for the construction of a 10 million dollar ship assembly plant, able to send 100 merchant vessels a year down the ways, all of the ships to be constructed of pre-fabricated parts and assembled with the efficient clock-precision of an automobile. The mass-produced motor car is by now an old story, the mass-produced pre-fabricated house has just begun to win a foothold, but over the horizon comes the promise of this even more startling advance—big freighters booming out of one assembly plant at the rate of more than eight a month!

The world of tomorrow in which radio-active chemicals may be produced to control diseases has come a step nearer. The last 1200 tons of concrete have been poured into the foundation molds for the new 4000-ton atom-smashing cyclotron at the University of California in Berkeley. Even radio-active substances produced by the present atom smasher, only one-sixteenth as large as the new machine will be, have unveiled to scientists hitherto unknown functions of the human body, new clues to its growth is to way and how it becomes sick. In these increasing stores of knowledge on why human organisms act and feel as they do lies man's best hope that tomorrow's world will be a better, sinner, less violent world.

In the county courthouse at El Centro, Calif., more than 600 second generation Japanese took a pledge of loyalty to the United States the other day. This wholly voluntary act on the part of American-born Japanese of the Imperial Valley was a welcome and praiseworthy token of their allegiance. It can, and should, serve as a reminder that the great majority of persons of recent foreign born descent are proud to live in this land, are loyal to it, and will fight for it. Nothing could be more harmful than to carelessly impute to them the beliefs which now prevail in the countries from which they or their forebears came. This great majority, with all other Americans, pledges its sincere allegiance to the flag of the United States and to the country for which it stands.

Mend your speech lest it mar your fortunes.

To Play Off Tie Polo Game At Riviera

Riviera and the Tigers will gallop into a 6 period polo battle Sunday afternoon to settle the 5-5 deadlock of last week at the Riviera Country Club. Charles (Buddy) Rogers, film actor, who is captain of the fighting Tigers, turned in just about the best game of his polo career last week. One of the fastest men in polo on the coast, Rogers chalked up two goals for his mates, Tom Cross, who will captain the Riviera cohorts, played stellar polo in the fracas Sunday. He is regarded as a top player in this section and showed his mettle in this match.

San Fernando Valley malletmen and Westwood will engage in a mallet duel at 1:45 Sunday, and jumping events will take place between games.

As It Appears To me

I wonder how many of you have ever thought of our town as just 1100 hundred acres of gardens? It isn't as preposterous as it sounds and if you once set out on foot to see our gardens you will agree. This is what we tried to do this week, with the immediate result that we were convinced that trying to write adequately of Sierra Madre gardens in a short column is just one degree removed from the impossible; so we hasten to apologize to all of you good gardeners who will not be mentioned, simply because we are not a feminine Mercury.

Beginning our one woman garden tour in the garden of Mrs. R. W. Solomon, a gardener of amazing ability in growing almost everything from slips, we learned a few things which may interest you. First, Dichondra planted between patio flag stones is the answer to an old and trying problem. We had thought that it might want to spread too much, but it doesn't. Those of you just setting out bulbs for early spring bloom, may profit by Mrs. Solomon's advice, for she maintains that bulbs planted in pots will grow best if set out in a mixture of peat moss and earth and kept in the dark until their roots have shot far into the soil, assuring large sturdy blooms. Because Mrs. Solomon once brought us, at the office, a pot of exquisite daffodils, and again a huge, beautiful arrangement of rare iris, we know that she is an authority on bulbs.

In her garden just now one finds a blooming moon vine, Mina Lobata, which to her is brilliant and birds in flight, mingling with blue clusters of the potato vine; white snow berries, which would be striking if arranged with the red berries of the pyracantha; yellow ginger, yellow iris, and most interesting of all, the seed pods of a small blue iris, which open to reveal tightly held brilliant orange berries.

At the C. A. Root home next door to the Solomons there are rows and rows of bright chrysanthemums. Everywhere one comes upon hyacinths, bougainvillea, beds of shasta daisies, pyracantha berries just growing red, and making one long to see them growing in their native China. Walking along you suddenly hear a small water fall, and look over a fence or hedge as a clear pool reflecting the clouds, and flowers which lean over its edge.

Chrysanthemums of all types are at their best just now in the W. B. Stringfellow garden on West Grand View avenue. But long before reaching them you will have lost your breath many times, first over the deep red oleanders and purple pleroma growing along the drive. Over the sweeping lawn sloping for hundreds of feet toward the street are old oak trees, with here and there a sycamore or pine, and falling from the trees are yellow, white pink or burnished copper cascade chrysanthemums. In the patio are banks of potted chrysanthemums of all colors and types. This is a garden that one should wander through for hours, for there are hundreds of plants, some in bloom, some not, which could lead one on and on.

The garden of the Bob Wrights next door shows just what one can do with potted plants, for Mrs. White has about three hundred potted azaleas, gardenias, camellias, geraniums, begonias, various succulents, and others which always give some color to a particular corner of the patio. Here we learned that gardenias will bloom best if trimmed into small trees; that camellias are one of the most simple things to grow successfully (only if you are an expert gardener, to our mind) and that if you want a really good all year bed oxalis and perennial phlox are the answer.

Down at Six T Oaks, the Dudley estate on East Orange Grove avenue, the garden is riotous with chrysanthemums. On West Sierra Madre Blvd., the Harold I. Stitts also have gone in for this fine autumn flower. The F. D. R. Mootes, as always, have had wonderful dahlias, as have the M. Penn Phillips, where just now chrysanthemums are coming into their own.

All of this beauty leaves us rather exhausted, but if you really want to know our town and townspeople just go out looking at gardens, and you will return with slips of amazing new plants, bouquets of flowers, and a warm spot in your heart, like the one we came away with after spending a quiet 15 minutes in the garden with Mrs. W. S. Hull, where we just sat and looked, asking a few questions, not pretending to know anything at all and just absorbing quiet beauty. It's a grand experience and we recommend it to all of you, and don't forget to look in on Mrs. C. J. Holmes, on Santa Anita court, who is growing the lovely shy African violet (we should remember a long botanical

Local Shipments To British War Relief All Arrive Safely

Mrs. J. Andrew Hall, who is in charge of work at the local chapter of the British War Relief, this week issued a call for blankets, for which there is increasing need as the winter advances. There is also need of piece covering for quilts, or plain calico or outing flannel to cover the 12 woolen bala which will be made ready for the next shipment to England.

Mrs. Hall recently received word that all shipments have arrived in London, and have been of inestimable benefit to those who have lost every possession during the bombings. Special praise was given to the method packing, which greatly facilitates distribution as each garment is separately wrapped and labeled. There has been a fine response on the part of the townswomen in filling Christmas stockings and comfort bags. Thirty stockings have been filled with toys and candy and 12 comfort bags completed for wounded soldiers. Another lot is now being made.

RALLY AT THE VINE FOR CAMP FIRE GIRLS

Through the courtesy of Mrs. W. J. Lawless, Sierra Madre Camp Fire Girls and Blue Birds will hold a rally at Wistaria Vine Gardens Wednesday afternoon, November 13, from 3:45 until 5 o'clock.

Following the council fire and program of songs, girls will enjoy a marshmallow toast on the pergola. Sponsors of the groups and mothers as well as all townspeople interested in Camp Fire activities have been invited to the rally by Mrs. E. L. Hinkley, chairman of the community committee which has also extended an expression of sincere appreciation to Mrs. Lawless.

All Sierra Madre Camp Fire girls and Blue Birds are urged by Mrs. Hinkley to attend the Camp Fire Costume Party and Rally of the Pasadena Council which will be held at 7 o'clock Friday evening at Camp Kunie in the Arroyo Seco.

What A Girl Sees Ramblin' 'Round

Now that the election's over, here's my prize story out of the multitude of pre-election stories that have gone the rounds. It seems that the curators at the National Gallery were undecided as to where Roosevelt's picture should be hung. One curator stood back and scratching his chin said, "No, we can't hang it next to Washington's; he never told a lie." Another undecided one commented, "And we can't hang it next to Lincoln's; he's known as Honest Abe." Finally, one of the more brilliant ones quipped, "Why, we'll hang him next to Columbus. There was a man who didn't know where he was going when he started; who didn't know where he was when he got there; who didn't know where he'd been when he got back and did the whole thing on borrowed money."

File on the humorless pranksters who set five of the city's palm trees on fire, Halloween night. Not only was it a dastardly trick to destroy the trees, but it cost taxpayers $152 to send firemen out. My suggestion would be to make the boys who perpetrated the nuisance, work the $152 out on city projects.

LOCAL TRIVIA AND NOT SO TRIVIA: That dynamic looking businessman that's added pep to the local scene is Byron Hopper, the new jeweler, and the NEWS next door neighbor. You'd better go after him, Bill Burr. He looks like a potential Kiwanian. And, Harry Lange, the new jeweler is a cinch for the Chamber of Commerce. He hasn't even a tinge of local defeatism. Wonder what the conversation was like at the Sam Graham household these election days. Sam is president of the Republican Club and his new wife is a Democrat with all kinds of southern Democratic prestige in the family background. . . . Those clever bouquets Marie Schiltz wears in her hair intrigue me. . . . Nora Mesecar did one of the nicest things that's been done hereabouts lately. She lined several boxes with lovely fall-tinted leaves and filled them with brilliant orange persimmons from her trees to give to people around town, including a grateful reporter. Nice gesture, Nora. . . . R. C. Lewis, my favorite banker, took some swell kodachrome shots of his recent trip to Zion National Park, Bryce and Grand Canyons and other photogenic spots in Nevada. They were so good that the organizations in town are all asking for the preview showing. . . . While pre-election feuds raged, here's a good counter-irritant. . . . Someone decorated the picture of Roosevelt that adorns the window of the Roosevelt headquarters on the blvd. And the decorations were none too flattering. What did those two swell gals from Republican headquarters do — Ruth Smith and Amanda Freeland — but march down and help clean it off. —Florence Bertsch

Planting Of Vacant Lots Discussed By Garden Club

Mrs. A. R. Jewell, representative of the Pasadena Horticultural Society, spoke to Sierra Madre Garden Club members at Wistaria Vine Gardens Monday evening, on work of the Pasadena organization which culminates each year in the Pasadena Flower Show at Brookside Park. Jacques Hahn, Club president, pinch-hit for Hubert Passage, who was scheduled to speak but was unable to be present. Mr. Hahn turned the meeting over to a discussion about the planting of vacant lots here and parkway planting. —Georgia Foster, Publicity Chm.

To Stress Citizens Duties To 4H Clubs

Lorne Pratt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Waverly E. Pratt, represented the San Gabriel Valley 4-H Clubs, Friday, when he addressed students of the Santa Anita School on the "History of Democracy." Training for the duties and responsibilities of citizenship in a democracy is to be an important part of the program for County 4-H Club members, and it is hoped that the club through its work may become an important factor for sustaining public morale during the present national defense crisis.

What's Going On At The Grammar School

Miss Wone's 3B room: Dick Pendergast wants to know how California was gotten by the United States, whether by war or by purchase.

We are studying early Sierra Madre in our room. We want to know about the Indians when they lived here. We want to know what they lived in, too. We hope to learn about early settlers in Sierra Madre also.—Robert Freeland and David Lovejoy.

Mrs. Adams' 4B room: I am captain of a kick-ball game. We chose sides last week. The name of our team is the Giants. The other team is the Yankees. We hope we will win.—Bobby Sanabria
I have a cat named Mickey. When he gets up in a tree I have to go up and get him and have Betty Babbitt or someone hold the blanket down on the ground. Can you tell me what kind of a cat he is?—Nancy Tarr.

We have 42 children in our room. Mrs. Adams is our teacher and she is very nice. We all like her, and we like Mr. Smith, our superintendent. Ardis Mae Jacobson.

Miss Moore's 5B room: I like school because I learn to read, write and do arithmetic. At school I learn to salute the flag and play games.—Neil Fergus.

Mrs. Gardner's 5A class: Our class has been studying the United States and what products different sections produce. At the present we are studying about the corn and wheat sections.—Malcolm Gerscher.

When we came back from summer vacation we did some review work from 5B. Now we are doing fractions. We are learning to add, subtract and reduce fractions.—Kath Wallaco.

The 5A grade is studying about the latter pioneers of America and how the people lived and the hardships they went through.—Jimmie Barker.

In the 5A we have been drawing quilt patterns. And some of the girls are going to make quilts.—Grace Bauden.

Mr. Larsen's 7B class: I made some chemical experiments before our class one day. One of these experiments made the distilled water turn red, and then I put another chemical in the substance and it turned clear. Another of my demonstrations showed that carbon dioxide is in our breath.—Frances Evans.

Our room is studying the early explorers such as Columbus, Marco Polo, Magellan, Vasco de Gama, the Cabots and many others. We have found many interesting facts from this study and enjoy it very much. Dirk Cable, Charles Root and Nathan Tarr have gotten up quite a chemistry laboratory in the back of the room. It is interesting to see the different experiments they have. They can make purple out of a few chemicals and with a drop of another change the purple back to clear again.—Virginia Behrens.

Mrs. Pavelko's 8B class: Our eighth grade class has planned a Halloween party on Wednesday, October 30. After many heated hours of arguing, we have planned to bring food from home, have costumes and invite Mr. and Mrs. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. McElfresh.

Mrs. Pavelko's class has just finished an important experiment. The experiment was to see how much starch there is in a leaf. We are planning to study microscopic plants, such as bacteria, and many other harmful germs. We are going to put them in a large bowl covered with gelatin to see how fast they grow and multiply and see how much harm they do human beings.—Arthur Hoshina and Bobo Allen.

SCHOOL ORCHESTRA
There are 38 talented young boys and girls in the school orchestra which is directed by Mr. McLughlin. When the organization was started this year there were only 22 members. Mr. McLughlin had predicted that there would be at least 40 members by Christmas but it looks as though the attendance is growing faster than he had any hopes of.

Historic Bovard Home Purchased By Insurance Man

Sale of the historic Bovard property at the head of Canyon avenue—once part of the Carter estate, has just been completed according to Neale and Russell, real estate firm that acted as agents in the sale of the property from Mrs. Gilbert S. Bovard to Mr. and Mrs. Philip C. Lentz. The spacious 12-room house was built on the acre plot approximately 20 years ago by Mrs. Bovard's father, Mr. Klemme, who was a lumberman from the East and insisted on having lumber for the house shipped here from the East.

A ravine runs through the center of the beautiful grounds that are covered with oak trees and numerous varieties of fruit trees. Little change will be made in the house.

Mr. Lentz is superintendent of the casualty department of the Glen Falls Insurance Company in Los Angeles, and has resided in Sierra Madre at 98 East Sierra Madre blvd. for the past six years.

With Sierra Madre Students At Wilson Jr. High

Seven Sierra Madre students of the Woodrow Wilson Junior High School, Ruth Coit, Maurine Norris, Elizabeth Jackson, Eileen Pulling, Donald Davey, Russell Jensen and Bob Penn, are busy rehearsing for the all-city junior high school orchestra and band concert to be given in January.

Band members are now playing for pep assemblies preceding football games as well as the football games themselves while the orchestra plays for quieter activities such as the senior class plays.

An Armistice Day program will be given for Wilson Junior High students in the assemblies, November 8. Dr. James Henry Hutchins, pastor of the Lake Avenue Congregational Church, will speak on the meaning of democracy. The flag salute will be given and a student from the speech department will present an appropriate speech. The last half of the program will be presented by the boys and girls glee clubs in the senior assembly. The Boys Glee Club will sing "The Rosary" (Nevin) with Clinton Tarwater, 10-1, as soloist. The Girls Glee Club will sing "Song of Remembrance" (Brown) and "Land of Our Fathers," (Serpentini). The junior assembly will be entertained by the orchestra instead of the glee clubs.

Jr Women Will Serve A Spaghetti Dinner

On November 14, Sierra Madre Woman's Club Juniors will give a spaghetti dinner at the clubhouse as a ways and means project for the senior club. Reservations should be made as soon as possible with Mrs. Al Miller, reservations chairman.

estimate the number of Sierra Madre boys likely to be called in the first draft, November 18th. However since there will be only 1300 men called from California, and there are already 10,000 volunteers in the State, it is doubtful whether any registrants other than volunteers will be called here.

If it is necessary to select men for the November 18th draft, officials will choose men numerically and will weed them out according to the information furnished on the questionnaires.

The local board will classify the men as follows:
Class I—Men who are available for induction into the armed forces of the United States.

Class II—Those whose induction is deferred because of the importance to the Nation of the service they are rendering in their civilian activities.

Class III—Those whose induction is deferred because they have persons dependent upon them for support.

Class IV—Those whose induction is deferred by law and those unfit for military service.

Dr. John L. Woehler has been appointed chairman of the Sierra Madre draft advisory committee and when local draftees have received their questionnaires will call a meeting of the local committee though it is thought improbable a headquarters will be established here. Until the committee is further organized draftees wishing assistance or advice in preparation of their questionnaires may call Dr. Woehler who will either assist them himself or refer them to another member of the committee here.

Kiwanians Learn There's Really Nothing New Under The Sun

Supporting his contention that "there is nothing new under the sun," W. R. Humphries exhibited newspapers more than 200 years old at a meeting of the Kiwanis Club at Wistaria Vine Gardens Tuesday. A London paper of about 1750 revealed a condition in Poland almost identical with that when Hitler ravaged the land recently. The strip tease dance of today was described by a London paper of 90 years ago as "linen lifting." "This," said Humphries exhibiting the fashion page of a well known magazine of 1890 containing pictures of women's hats of the day, "looks precisely like the ad of a well known Los Angeles department store in today's newspapers." The well-known former Sierra Madre realtor kept his audience interested and highly amused for more than an hour, proving that many things considered new and novel today are merely comebacks from the distant past.

With several specimens from his famed museum in Arcadia, the redoubtable W. Parker Lyon, now a resident of Orange Grove avenue, convulsed his hearers so that they forgot the rule that Kiwanis luncheon meetings shall adjourn at 1:30 and his audience remained long after.

O. A. Prest, of Monrovia, manager of the telephone company, headed a delegation of visiting Monrovia Kiwanians. There was another delegation from Altadena and practically a full attendance of the growing home membership.

Program Of Wilson PTA Will Answer Parents Questions

"Interpreting the Junior High School" is the subject on which Dr. Glenn L. Lembke will speak to members and friends of the Woodrow Wilson PTA at the monthly meeting at 2:45 Wednesday afternoon, November 13. Dr. Lembke is "Coordinator of Secondary Schools" in Pasadena, and will give parents an opportunity to ask questions regarding secondary school programs or problems. The Wilson-Willard mothers chorus will sing and tea will be served by the 7th grade mothers.

Second in a series of discussion group meetings will meet Tuesday, November 12th, from 1:30 to 3 in the club room at Wilson. Miss Anna Davis, counselor, will meet next Tuesday with parents of the 9-1 students. Friday, November 29th, has been set for a school skating party, the first to be sponsored by the Wilson PTA, and support of the parents and students in this recreational activity is hoped for.

'Round The Town

Miss Mary Sheriff will return from Imperial where she is teaching in the elementary school, to spend the Armistice Day weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Sheriff.

Miss Linda Sepulveda was here from Los Angeles to spend last weekend with her mother, Mrs. A. R. Sepulveda of 646 Orange Drive.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Robertson and Mrs. J. Borradale were Sierra Madreans enjoying the performance of "Manon" at the Pasadena Civic Auditorium Tuesday evening. Saturday evening Mrs. Borradale will hear "Der Rosenkavalier" at the Shrine Auditorium in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Mable Sutherland of 532 Ramona avenue spent last week in Pasadena with her daughter Mrs. Mabel Bell.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray MacAlpine and small son Robert Lee have returned to their home at Trona following a ten-day stay in Pasadena. During their vacation they were visitors at the home of Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Sherman, 501 N. Baldwin avenue.

Jarvis Barlow's New Magazine Scores A Decided Hit

Newsstand sale of Pan, the new magazine of pictures of Pasadena and surrounding communities, has exceeded all expectations since its initial appearance last weekend, according to Jarvis Barlow, editor. The first issue of the magazine features three pages of pictures on Sierra Madre. The magazine also covers Altadena, San Marino, San Gabriel, Arcadia, Monrovia, Alhambra, South Pasadena, Lamanda Park and Pasadena.

Sports, society, dramatics, dancing, theatres, fashions, hobbies, puzzles, pets and personalities of the community are to be covered by the new magazine, which deviates from usual magazine formula by not publishing display advertising. Entire contents of the magazine is pictorial, except for brief description copy.

Interesting snapshots of pets, children, scenery, personalities and other subjects are welcomed by the new magazine, and prizes have been offered for best snapshots each month.

HILARIOUS COMEDY AT THE PLAYHOUSE

Top-flight fare for playgoers comes in the Pacific Coast premiere of Paul Osborn's "Mornings at Seven," which comes to the Pasadena Community Playhouse November 12 to 23. An American play of American people, "Mornings at Seven" derives its unusual title from Robert Browning's "Pippa Passes," but its setting is thoroughly modern. Chief variation lies in Osborn's exchange of oldsters for youngsters. And the plus forty tribe can be just as funny as their youngsters. "Two on an Island," by Elmer Rice completes its Pasadena run on Saturday, November 9.

Landscaping And Housing Subjects At Sunday Supper

The timely and vital subject of federal and state housing projects and the inter-relationship of community landscaping will be authoritatively discussed at the Wistaria Vine's Sunday Sunset Supper festival program.

W. W. Alley, technical director of the Housing Authority of Los Angeles City, will talk on the low rent housing and slum clearance projects inaugurated under his organization, while Geraldine Knight, noted landscape architect, is to discuss the recreational possibilities of planned landscaping in relation to the community at large.

Next Friday, November 15, at 7:45 p.m., the Quartet Intime of Bernard Sinsheimer, will present a benefit musical for the Sierra Madre Arts Guild and the Wistaria Vine Association.

Plans For Red Cross Drive Announced

urday at all grocery stores and markets so that townspeople may read in detail of the numerous philanthropies conducted throughout the year by the local chapter, philanthropies which are not confined to war relief but which include a vast amount of local aid.

The local chapter supplies clothing to Sierra Madre's needy from donations of worn clothing brought into Red Cross headquarters, and because of the approach of winter is in need of blankets, quilts, men's shoes and trousers and any other wearing apparel that more fortunate residents can contribute.

Mrs. Harry Holland, production chairman, is sending out an appeal for volunteer knitters and women to sew to help fill the large quota recently assigned the local chapter.

Home hygiene course conducted each Tuesday and Friday evening from 7 to 9 at the Grammar School continues to grow, it was announced yesterday by Mrs. E. R. Thompson, chairman. However, the goal of 15 students has not been reached, and it is still possible to enroll in the class.

Katherine Cornell, Leopold Stokowski, Clifton Fadiman and Raymond Gram Swing will broadcast over the various networks, Sunday, November 10th, to enlist aid for the membership drive.
